4. [Romans 8:14; Ephesians 5:18] Word Studies in the Greek New Testament by Kenneth Wuest says about Ephesians 5:18,
The verb ‘be filled’ is in the present imperative, “Being constantly being filled with the Spirit.” The interpretation is “Be constantly, moment by moment, being controlled by the Spirit.”

If we’re not being controlled by the Spirit what do you think we’re being controlled by?

How might your life look different if you were “moment by moment being controlled by the Spirit” and not your flesh?

What might help you be more constantly filled with the Spirit?
